

Dear Colleagues,

First of all, huge congratulations to Belfast on a simply superb conference on Saturday last. It was so informative, innovative and, above all in these challenging times, enjoyable!

But as we look forward to the ending of lockdown and current restrictions, may we invite you to ...

SAVE THE DATE

FOUR JURISDICTIONS FAMILY LAW CONFERENCE 2022***

DUBLIN

28TH – 30TH January 2022

Shelbourne Hotel, St. Stephen's Green, Dublin

Conference topics (provisional) include:

- Arbitration and Family Law
- Parental Rejection and high conflict parental disputes
- The Brexit Interview

As well as a full range of social events and surprises ...

Further information to follow in due course and we will have a dedicated section for conference updates on our website – www.familylawyers.ie. For further information (or conference correspondence) email: fourjurisdictionsdublin2022@gmail.com.

Looking forward to continuing the conversation in Dublin!

Nuala E Jackson SC

Alan Finnerty, solicitor

Chair, FLA

Vice Chair, FLA

*Subject always to Covid-19 regulations

Law Library Distillery Building, 145-151 Church Street, Dublin 7 DO7 WDX8
Hon. Sec.: Graham Hanlon (graham@hanlonandco.com)

Executive Committee: Nuala E Jackson SC (Chair) Alan Finnerty (Vice Chair) Graham Hanlon (Hon. Secretary) James Richardson BL (Hon. Treasurer) Sarah Fennell BL (Law Reform) Alexis Mina BL (Circuit) Stephanie M. Coggans (Social) Katharine Kelleher (Cork) Lyndsey Keogh BL/Cathy Morris (Education)
Secretaries to Executive Committee: Anthony Hopkins and Erika Coughlan BL